

Instrument Checklist: Violin

Congratulations!! Your student has decided to play violin and we are so excited about getting started. Please review this list carefully and bring it with you to a local music store. Remember, your student will grow and change in the next few years and will likely outgrow their current violin. Renting is the best option until they have stopped growing. Ensuring that your student has a quality instrument, and all necessary supplies will ensure their success.

Your student needs a _____ sized instrument!

Below is a list of necessary materials for your violin player:

- A quality instrument and bow
- Case for your violin
- Shoulder rest*
- Rosin
- Cleaning cloth

*Please triple check that your student has their own shoulder rest, this is a must for orchestra.

These materials are recommended but not required:

- Folding music stand for home practice
- A pack of spare strings
- Spare rosin

Below is a list of music stores in our area:

Atlanta Violins

Beau Vinci Violins

Huthmaker Violins

Mandarin Strings

Music and Arts/ Ken Stanton

Ronald Sachs Violins

Instrument Checklist: Viola

Congratulations!! Your student has decided to play viola and we are so excited about getting started. Please review this list carefully and bring it with you to a local music store. Remember, your student will grow and change in the next few years and will likely outgrow their current viola. Renting is the best option until they have stopped growing. Ensuring that your student has a quality instrument, and all necessary supplies will ensure their success.

Your student needs a _____ sized instrument!

Below is a list of necessary materials for your viola player:

- A quality instrument and bow
- Case for your viola
- Shoulder rest*
- Rosin
- Cleaning cloth

*Please triple check that your student has their own shoulder rest, this is a must for orchestra.

These materials are recommended but not required:

- Folding music stand for home practice
- A pack of spare strings
- Spare rosin

Below is a list of music stores in our area:

Atlanta Violins

Beau Vinci Violins

Huthmaker Violins

Mandarin Strings

Music and Arts/ Ken Stanton

Ronald Sachs Violins

Instrument Checklist: Cello

Congratulations!! Your student has decided to play cello and we are so excited about getting started. Please review this list carefully and bring it with you to a local music store. Remember, your student will grow and change in the next few years and will likely outgrow their current cello. Renting is the best option until they have stopped growing. Ensuring that your student has a quality instrument, and all necessary supplies will ensure their success.

Your student needs a _____ sized instrument!

Below is a list of necessary materials for your cello player:

- A quality instrument and bow
- Case for your cello
- Rock stop
- Rosin
- Cleaning cloth

These materials are recommended but not required:

- Folding music stand for home practice
- A pack of spare strings
- Spare rosin

Below is a list of music stores in our area:

Atlanta Violins

Beau Vinci Violins

Huthmaker Violins

Mandarin Strings

Music and Arts/ Ken Stanton

Ronald Sachs Violin

Instrument Checklist: Bass

Congratulations!! Your student has decided to play bass and we are so excited about getting started. Please review this list carefully and bring it with you to a local music store. Remember, your student will grow and change in the next few years and will likely outgrow their current bass. Renting is the best option until they have stopped growing. Ensuring that your student has a quality instrument, and all necessary supplies will ensure their success.

TRMS Orchestra offers a limited number of bass rentals from the school. If there is a financial concern about renting a bass from the music store, please reach out to Ms. Paul-Nally as soon as possible for assistance.

Your student needs a _____ sized instrument!

Below is a list of necessary materials for your bass player:

- A quality instrument and bow
- Case for your bass
- Rock stop
- Rosin
- Cleaning cloth

These materials are recommended but not required:

- Folding music stand for home practice
- A pack of spare strings
- Spare rosin

Below is a list of music stores in our area:

Atlanta Violins

Beau Vinci Violins

Huthmaker Violins

Mandarin Strings

Music and Arts/ Ken Stanton

Ronald Sachs Violins